5 KfW Group has appointed Mr Bernd Loewen as Chief Executive Officer and Dr Michael Helbig as Executive Board member of KfW Stiftung for a term of three years until the end of May 2027 and the end of July 2027 respectively. Dr Helbig will also manage the day-to-day business of the foundation.

KfW Stiftung has undergone a very positive development in recent years since its foundation in 2012. KfW Stiftung intends to continue this successful path and realise the foundation's potential for society.

10 'KfW Stiftung is pursuing the goal of helping to shape social change and will focus even more strongly on socially relevant future issues in the future,' says Dr Michael Helbig.

15 Bernd Loewen (59) is a member of the Executive Board of KfW Bankengruppe, where he is responsible for accounting, organisation and human resources. Dr Michael Helbig (53) was Head of Group Communications and Group Marketing at KfW Bankengruppe for many years.

20 At the same time as Dr Helbig's appointment, Dr Lutz-Christian Funke resigned from his position on the Executive Board of KfW Stiftung. Dr Funke was a member of the Executive Board of the foundation for many years and played a key role in its development. KfW Stiftung would like to thank Dr Funke for his successful commitment and his great personal dedication.

About KfW Stiftung:

25 KfW Stiftung is a foundation with legal capacity under civil law based in Frankfurt am Main. It was established in 2012 by the founder KfW Bankengruppe. KfW Stiftung addresses the major socially relevant issues of the future. It does this on the basis of three fields of action: Ecology & Sustainability, Economy & Society and Arts & Culture - and awards opportunities to those who are driving social transformation. In this way, it aims to play an active role in 30 shaping change.
